FRANK D. JONES, Q.C.
DEAN, FACULTY OF LAW
AT WORK AND AT PLAY

THE DEAN'S MESSAGE

Again it is my pleasure to have the opportunity of making a few short remarks in the Yearbook. As I am completing my third year as Dean, this year's graduating class and myself both started first year together. Thanks to their input, participation and influence, for which I am most grateful, I believe that the spirit and general collegiate atmosphere within the School has been a most positive and productive one. As practising lawyers you will find that the law community is really a very small one and this type of positive spirit makes practice of law much more enjoyable and indeed serves your clients well through expeditious service.

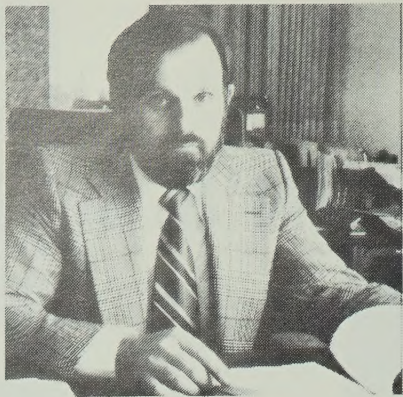

No doubt your thoughts are now turned to a new phase in your legal career for which the last three years have been merely a start in your legal education. One of the joys of practising law, of course, is that you never stop learning, which is one of the reasons the Profession is so demanding and also one of the reasons why it is never dull. I have no doubt that over the years this year's graduating class will make a major contribution, not only in the law field itself, but in the wider context of general community service.

Those of us in the Faculty of Law wish you all every success and remind you that we are always very pleased when you find time to return and have a chat which lets us know the progress which you have made. If we can be of assistance, please let us know. We will try our very best to accommodate you.

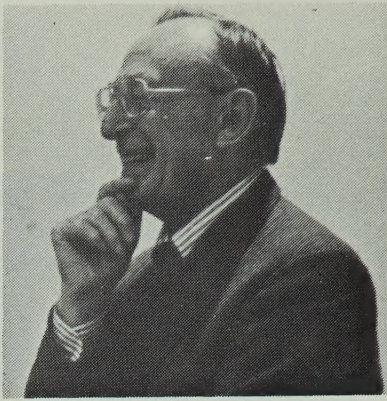

Good luck!

EDITOR'S

NOTE

Editing and producing this yearbook has been an interesting and challenging experience. It has been a lot of fun as well.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank some of the people who generally assisted me in this task. Mel Reeves, who organized so many of the administrative details of this and I might add, the previous two books. Andy Hladyshevsky and Fran Bendiak for their help with layouts and captions. Special thanks to Jurgen Welz, photographer, without whom there would be no yearbook, because he took the vast majority of the pictures in this edition. Finally, I cannot neglect to thank Bill Walsh for allowing me to get valuable (I hope) experience in the production of yearbooks in distributing the 1976-1977 edition and in doing layouts for the 1977-1978 edition.

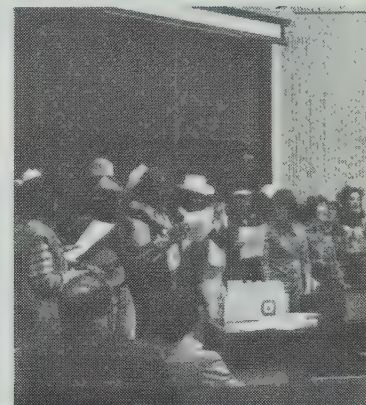

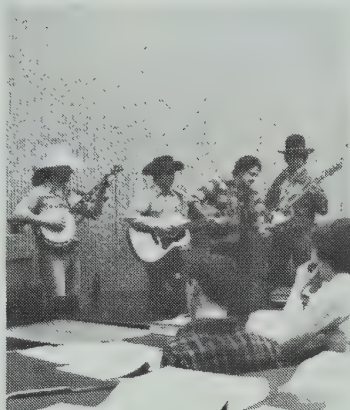

Any errors or omissions are my own and I take full responsibility for them. Also, note that all the characters in this book are purely imaginary and any chance resemblance to any living person or persons is purely specious.

Finally I want to extend best wishes to my fellow graduates for a fulfilling and rewarding career in the practice of law. See you soon,

Sharon Griffiths
